**STUNNING OPEN VIEWS**FOUR BEDROOMED PERIOD PROPERTY**SITATED IN A QUIET & WELL SOUGHT AFTER LOCATION****

This charming four-bedroom period property, located on Lodge Mill Lane, was originally built in 1860 by the Ramsbottom family of Lodge Mill. The house, dating from 1897, beautifully blends historic character with modern touches, making it a unique and inviting home.

The property features two spacious bathrooms, three reception rooms, and parking for up to three cars. True to its period origins, it boasts traditional window panelling, deep skirtings, high ceilings, and original floor tiling in the reception hall, dining, and living room. The lounge and upstairs rooms maintain the original pine floorboards, adding to the home's timeless charm. Feature fireplaces throughout provide a warm and cosy atmosphere.

A cellar offers additional storage space, and the property enjoys a non-overlooked position with private front and rear gardens, including a generous stone patio perfect for outdoor entertaining. The house offers stunning rural views across open fields, with iconic landmarks such as Ramsbottom, Peel Tower, and Musbury Tor visible in the distance.

With its combination of historical features, modern updates, and idyllic countryside views, 30 Lodge Mill Lane is a truly unique home that offers a blend of character, comfort, and privacy.
